DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 - 58, drawn to methods of administering poly-Glu,Tyr, classified in class 514, subclass 12, for example.
 - II. Claims 59 - 71, drawn to articles of manufacture comprising poly-Glu,Tyr, classified in class 514, subclass 12, for example.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the products can be used in materially different processes; they can be injected into healthy animals for production of antibodies. Furthermore search for the products themselves would not be informative as to the novelty or non-obviousness of the methods of administering them to the various patient populations, or for the effective amounts of the products.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and non-coextensive searches, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Requirement for Further Restriction Within Group I

4. If applicant elects Group I for prosecution on the merits, applicant must elect a single disease among the several diseases recited throughout the claims. The diseases recited do not share a common mechanism, etiology, or patient population and therefore methods of treating them are patentably distinct. For example, Huntington's disease, recited in claim 12, is unrelated to HIV infection, recited in claim 36. Search for methods of treating any one disease would be uninformative as to the methods of treating any other disease. Thus there would a serious burden on the examiner if methods of treating more than one of the diseases recited in the claims were to be considered.

Art Unit: 1649

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the elected disease, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election. As each protein is patentably distinct and requires separate search and consideration, further restriction is proper. Applicant is advised that this additional requirement is not a species election.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
